

La Bartavelle welcomes a brand new chef!

Chef David Godin-Pelletier, a native of Saint-Philippe with a degree from ITHQ, joined our team last month. After completing studies in advanced culinary arts and a three-month internship at the Michelin-starred Brikitenia restaurant in France, David gained most of his experience in reputed restaurants of Montreal and the South Shore. He started out as sous-chef under Chef Franck Morant at the Bistro Le Répertoire (Montreal), followed by stints at Le Bidon (St-Lambert) and l'Auroch (Quartier DIX30). Perhaps you've seen him on the Radio-Canada show Les Chefs! In his words, this six-week challenge was "a valuable and rewarding experience." It is our great pleasure to invite you to explore our new menu, try out our new dishes, and come meet our new chef.

